The Dy Commr's order is dated 9th April 1918 and the appeal petition was received in the Secrett on 13th May 18. If is barred by time - As this appears to be a move from Patel Nangiah, Hanumanna and certain other Villagers, if the date of Sl. 1 Viz 18th June 1918 is taken into account while calculating the time fixed for filing the appeal, it does not seem to be barred by time -

As regards the stay order prayed for, the Dy. Commr states in his order that the respts Thimmanna comes from the family wherein the Archakship in justion is hereditary, that it was irregular on the part of the Patel and some others in having appointed on their responsibility some other man of a different village as Pujari who has no right whatever to the office in justion, and has approved of the warning conveyed to the Patel for having given rise to some party disputes in the Village

Order

The inquiry made in this case does not appear to have been sufficiently full. The order ~~passed~~ of the D.S.C. of the 6th April 1910 which is under appeal, was passed (so far as the records can be traced) after giving a hearing to ~~the Appeal case~~ all the parties interested and particularly the villagers and hearing the headman, as ~~to~~ to the rights to perform the worship in the temple.

It is admitted by all parties that the family to which the rights of worship belong were originally Nâmadâri Kanchivalleppa Mukkala, ~~that~~ that one of the members thereof became a Sivâchar about some 30 or 40 years ago - Bhoothivanda Hanmantha, who was ~~last~~ performing the puja before the ~~commencement~~ of the present disputes, states that it was because the villagers strongly objected to the ~~Sivachar~~ continuing to perform the puja that the ~~Sivachar~~ ceased to perform the puja. The ~~Sivachar~~ and the whole family now admit their rights and agree to it also (the ~~Sivachar~~ Hanmantha) being employed as archaka. This point has not been sufficiently elucidated, namely, whether as a matter of fact all the other

ORDER.

The inquiry made in this case does not appear to have been sufficiently full. The order of the Deputy Commissioner dated the 6th April 1918, which is under appeal, was not passed (as far as can be judged from the records) after giving a hearing to all the parties interested, and particularly the villagers and such of the hakdars as have renounced their right to perform the worship in the temple.

It is admitted by all parties that the family to which the right of worship belonged were originally namadari kunchi vakkal-makkalu, and that most of the members thereof became converted to the sivachar sect some 30 or 40 years ago. Buddhivanta Hanumantha, who was performing the puja before the commencement of the present disputes, states that it was because the villagers strongly objected to persons so converted continuing to perform the puja that the members of the family renounced their rights and agreed to a stranger (the appellant Hanumanthaiya) being brought in as Archaka. This point has not been sufficiently elucidated, namely, whether as a matter of fact all the then members of the family interested including the respondent Thimmanna joined in renouncing their pujari hak before Hanumanthaiya was brought in, or only some of them did so including Buddhivanta Hanumantha. In the latter case, it will further have to be determined whether such of the hakdars as have become sivachars have thereby lost their eligibili to perform puja in the temple. And finally, it is desirable to ascertain whether there is in existence, either at Chakonahalli or elsewhere, any member of the same family who still continues to be a namadari and is qualified to perform the puja. In that event the respondent Thimmanna agrees orally to the puja being made over to such member of the family.

Upon the ~~above~~ several points, the Deputy Commissioner is requested to hold a further enquiry and send up his opinion as soon as possible, in any case, not later than three months from the date of this order.

Case came on for hearing this day. Parties present in Court represented by Counsel, Mr. Advocate Sreenivasa Rao for appellants & Mr. Advocate Jagannadha Rao for respondent. Arguments heard.

As opposed to the D.C. it cannot be held that any sagirama was executed by the members of the family resigning the Inam. The trouble appears to have arisen only when one of the members of the family whose term for puja was done, declined to perform the service with the aid of the Patel brought in a stranger outsider for the worship of the deity. It does not also appear that worship in Ramadari temples are not conducted by Pujaries who are Sanyasies. Evidently there are factions in the village & the appellant-pujari has been brought in at the instance of the Nagdar recently who was reluctant to perform the service with the aid of the Patel. To my mind this is preeminently a case which requires to be dealt with under the terms of Sec 36 of the Madras Regulation. The wishes of the Bhaktas may be ascertained & the pujari most acceptable to them selected. Case is remanded accordingly.

To

The Executive Councillor
in charge of the Muzrai Department,
Government of Mysore, BANGALORE.

Most Respected Sir,

The humble petition of Hanumantayya, son of Thimmayya, Archak of Sri Ranganathaswami Temple, - Chakonahalli, Tarikere Taluk, Kadur District, most respectfully sheweth:

1. I have been doing the puja (worship) of the - said Sri Ranganathaswami and eking out my livelihood. - Upon the representation of a follower of the Saiva religion who is of a different persuation from that of mine and who is also my opponent, the local authorities relied and disregarded altogether the representations of the said villagers, and in consequence fell in with the wishes of some others of - that other persuation whose aim is to deprive me of the worship of the said Temple of Vishnu and to get it done by the said follower of the Saiva religion, and thus - arrived at some proceedings hostile to me. Upon these proceedings it is said the Deputy Commissioner passed - orders depriving me of my right to do the said worship - and thereby being threatened into subjection by the local authorities. In order to obtain justice in this matter (my villagers including myself) have preferred an appeal to the Government.

2. It having been traditionally established by the scriptures that the form of worship in the temples

Vishnu

Vishnu should be according to the tenets of the Vaishnavas and the form of worship in the Temples of Siva should be according to the tenets of those who are bound by the rules relating to the Vows of the Saivas, the order of the Deputy Commissioner - which is quite contrary to such a sacred tradition, is opposed to our religion (which is Vaishnava) - For these reasons I humbly pray that, pending the - disposal of ~~the~~ my appeal, you will be pleased to pass orders staying the execution of the order of the - Deputy Commissioner and directing him not to deprive me of my worship, and thus protect the Eternal Law - of Dharma and also the family of that belongs to me who am in poor and distressed circumstances.

I beg to remain,

Most Respected Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Sir,

With reference to your official memorandum No. 881/M.F.699-17-5 dated 12th September 1918 forwarding for report with records, the petition from, Lakshma, son of Kalasanna and certain others of Chakonahalli in the Tarikere taluk, appealing against my orders directing the restoration of Thimmanna to the Archakship of Sri Ranganatha Devaru temple in the village, I have the honour to state as follows:-

(1). The temple in question is endowed with Inam -- lands(both wet and dry) to the extent of 5 acres and 19 guntas with an assessment of Rs.9-8-0, the Jodi of Rs.1-8-0 being payable to Government.

(2) There is a family of Archaks(in Chakonahalli) consisting of 9 persons who are all Shivaits and who perform the puja of the deity by rotation. One Bhudivantha Hanumanna, one of the Archaks, having refused to take up the puja when the turn came to him in the year 1915 another hakdar of this family viz.,H.Thimmanna applied to the patel and other villagers that he might be allowed to conduct the puja. But the patel Rangiah and some of the villagers of the place without giving heed to the prayer of the above-said Thimmanna brought one(behakdar) Hanumanthaiya of Thippagondanahalli village who belonged to a different sect(Sameraya) and appointed him as pujari of the temple with a promise to get him the inam lands of the temple and also some remuneration by private subscription. Thereupon Thimmanna, who was thus disappointed, petitioned the Amildar bringing to his notice the high-handedness of the patel and the villagers. The Amildar in submitting the records of enquiry to the Revenue Sub Divisional Assistant Commissioner, Tarikere recommended the restoration of Thimmanna to the Archakship of the temple. But the Assistant Commissioner Mr.B.Ramaswamiah passed orders on 5th September 1917 approving of the action taken by the patel and others on the ground that those who had once given up the puja hak should not be reemployed.

(3). Thereupon the Hakdar Thimmanna preferred an appeal to this office against the said order of the Sub Divisional Assistant Commissioner.

(4) On the perusal of the records and on hearing the appellant Thimmanna, I set aside the orders of the Sub Division Officer and directed the restoration of puja hak to Thimmanna as it was opposed to reason to deprive the whole family from its right of worship simply because one of its members refused to conduct the puja when the turn came to him. The present appeal to Government is against this order.

(5) The enclosure received with your memo under reply and the file of vernacular records ending with the Sub Division Officer's yadi No.S.4.C.354/18-19 dated 14th October 1918 are herewith submitted for kind perusal.

I have the honour to be,

Subject. Appeal against order No. 664 dt 9th April 1918 of the Dy. Commr, Kadur Dist, directing the restoration of the respt - Hanumanna - to the Archakship of Sri Ramaswamy Devaru temple at Chakonahalli, Tarikere Taluk.

Decision

The ~~parties to the appeal~~ namely Patel Rangaiya, Budda Vanthi Hanumanna, the Archak Hanumanthiah were heard in person on 21st July.

as represented by Counsel.

The finding made in this case does not appear to have been sufficiently full the order of the Dy. Commr. dated the 6th April 1918 which is under appeal, was not passed (as far as can be judged from the records) after giving a hearing to all the parties interested and particularly the Villagers and such of the Vakkars as had renounced their right to perform the worship in the temple

It is admitted by all parties that the family to which the right of worship belonged, were originally Nanadari Kunchi Vakkal-makkales, and that most of the members thereof became converted to the Sivachar sect

Some 30 or 40 years ago. Bussk. Vaidya Hanumanna, who was performing the puja before the commencement of the present disputes, states that it was because the villagers strongly objected to persons so converted continuing to perform the puja that the members of the family renounced their rights and agreed to a stranger (the apl. Hanumantaiya) being brought in as Archaka. This point has not been sufficiently elucidated, namely, whether as a matter of fact all the then members of the family interested under the respt. Hanumanna joined in renouncing the puja or [illegible]

by Hanumantaiya was brought in or only some of them did so including Buddhivanta ha Hanumantha — In the latter case, it will further have to be determined whether such of the bakdars as have become Sivachars have thereby lost their eligibility to perform puja in the temple. And finally, it is desirable to ascertain whether there is in existence, either at chatonahalli or elsewhere, any member of the same family who still continues to be a Banadari and is qualified to perform the puja. In that event, the respt Municipality agrees orally to the puja being made over to such member of the family.

Upon the several points

BANGALORE.

Sir,

Adverting to your Official Memorandum No.2690/Muz 699-17-10 dated 8th March 1919, returning the vernacular records relating to the Appeal in connection with the -- Archakship of Sri Ranganatha Devaru Temple at Chakonahalli in the Tarikere Taluk, for further enquiry and report, I have the honour to state that the records connected with the case were sent to the Taluk Amildar through the Sub Division Assistant Commissioner of Tarikere, for holding an enquiry in accordance with section 32 of the Muzrai Regulation.

2. The points on which a report has been called for by Government are:-

(a) Whether the members of the family renounced the right of Puja Hak?

(b) Whether such of the Hakdars as have become -- Sivachars have lost their eligibility to perform puja in the temple?

and (c) Whether there is in existence either at Chakonahalli or elsewhere, any member of the same family who still continues to be Namadhari and is qualified to perform puja?

3. The Amildar has reported that the Lingayat pujaris (including the respondant Thimmanna) are the hakdars for the worship of the deity, that there is no member of their family either in the village or elsewhere who still continues to be a Namdhari and that it is ascertained that in many places Vaishnavite deities are worshipped by Lingayat Pujaris.

4. As regards the question, whether the members of the family renounced their Pujari Hak, the Amildar does not appear to have made a satisfactory enquiry nor has he recorded his opinion. There are two mutchalikas in the record, one of the 15th April 1905 and the other of the 16th June, 1910 executed to the villagers by the Pujaris in which they say that it is not convenient to them to perform the worship, and agree to a Pujari being appointed. It is hard to say that by these Mutchalikas they renounced their right of worship. They continued to perform the puja for years after these mutchalikas were executed and it was only in August 1915 that one of their member and a few of the villagers appointed the appellant Archak Hanumanthaiya to perform the worship(Vide agreement dated 16th August 1915). This appointment does not seem to have been assented to, or acquiesed in, by the other pujaris. They have taken objection to it. It seems to me on the whole that there is no satisfactory proof of the hakdars having renounced their Hak.

5. With reference to the eligibility of the Sivachar Hakdars to perform puja in the temple, it is understood that such a practice prevails in some other temples also. Even in regard to the Chakonahalli Temple, the Puje by the Sivachar Hakdars was not objected to till very recently. The Pujaris perform the puja only by Tantrams and no mantrams are used. So, it does not seem to have been considered of much significance whether a Namdhari pure or a namdhari Sivachar performed the puje, so long as he the hakdar. The namdhari sivachar pujari also does not seem to have given up his puje by reason of the conversion owing to the Inam lands and other perquisites attached to it.

6. The file of papers and the enclosures received with your memo under reply are herewith submitted.

Appellant.--		Respondent
(1) Patel Rangiah,
(2) Buddivanta Hanumanna,	-Vs-	Thimmanna.
(3) Archak Hanumanthiah.

Subject:-- Appeal against ~~the~~ order No. 664 dated 9-4-1918 of the Deputy Commissioner Kadur District, directing the restoration, to the respondent Thimmanna, of the archakship of Sri Ranganatha Devaru temple at -- Chokanahalli, Tarikere Taluk.

D E C I S I O N.

The right of worship in the temple of Sri Ranganatha Swami at Chokanahalli belonged to the family of the 2nd appellant and, the respondent, who belonged originally to the community of Namadhavakuneni Vokkalu - Makkalu, of whom several became converted to the Sivachar sect about 30 or 40 years ago. When the turn of Buddivanta Hanumanna, 2nd appellant, to worship came, he with the aid of the 1st appellant brought in the 3rd -- appellant - a Sattvik Vaishnava of Thippa Chahalli, in August 1911 to perform pooja. He urged that as the villagers objected to to persons ~~converted as Sivachars~~ who became Lingayets continuing to perform puja, the members of his family had renounced their rights and agreed to a stranger - the 3rd appellant - being brought in as archak. Thimmanna - the respondent - objected to his introduction, and the Deputy Commissioner, Kadur District, before whom the matter went up in appeal, decided in order No. 664 dated 6th April 1916, that the said Thimmanna should be restored to the post.

Pudhivanta Hanumanna and others -- appealed to Government against the foregoing order, and in this office memo No. 2690 dated 6-3-1919, the case was remanded after hearing the contending parties, to the Deputy Commissioner for a further report as to (1) whether the members of the family had renounced the puja hak (2) whether such of the hakdars as had become Sivachars have become ineligible to perform puja in the temple and (3) whether there is in existence, either at Chakanahalli or elsewhere, any member of the family who still continues to be a nama-dhari and is qualified to perform puja.

The Deputy Commissioner now reports that there is no satisfactory proof of the renunciation of their right by the hereditary pujaris who continued to perform worship in the temple for years after the execution of muchalikas in 1908 and 1910 wherein they are stated to have agreed to the appointment of Hanumantha as Archak and that there is no member of the family who still claim continues to be a Ramadhari, that it is not of much significance whether a Ramadhari pujari or a Ramadhari Sivachar performs the puja for which only Tantrams are used, and not Mantrams, so long as he is the Hakdar. Vaishnava deities are worshipped in many places by Vaishnavat pujaris.

The case was again heard before Government on 18th July 1921, the parties being present in person and represented by their Advocates Messrs. Srinivasa Rao and Vasudeva Murti.

As opined by the Deputy Commissioner it cannot be held that any razinama was executed by the members of the family resigning the hak. The trouble appears to have arisen only when one of the members of the family whose turn for puja was due, declined to perform the service and with the aid of the Patel brought in a Ramdi outsider for worship of the deity. It does not also appear that worship in Ramadhari temples is not conducted by pujaries who are Saivites. Evidently there are factions in the village and the appellant pujari has been brought in at the instance of the Hakdar member, who was reluctant to perform the service, with the aid of the Patel. Government are therefore of opinion that this is preeminently a case which requires to be dealt with under the terms of Section 30 of the Fuzrai Regulation. The wishes of the Hakdars may be ascertained, and the pujari most acceptable to them selected. [illegible]

The case is remanded accordingly.
